

Female Bodies in China: Literati Fantasies, Iron Girls & Olympics Hoopla

A Talk by Professor Eva Man

A scintillating talk by Professor Eva Man on the notion of female beauty in Chinese culture, from the development and construction of the feminine ideal in late Imperial courtesan culture to current discourses on female beauty under the Chinese Community Party regime, as demonstrated by the Olympics spectacle.

Free and open to the public. Register here.

When: Tue, May 17, 3-5pm

Where: Room 1600, Harbour Centre
515 West Hastings

Prof. Eva Man is the Director of Film Academy and Chair Professor in Humanities in Hong Kong Baptist University. She publishes widely on comparative aesthetics, comparative philosophy, feminist philosophy, cultural studies, art and cultural criticism.

SFU

INSTITUTE FOR TRANSPACIFIC
CULTURAL RESEARCH

DEPARTMENT OF
GENDER, SEXUALITY,
AND WOMEN'S STUDIES
SIMON FRASER UNIVERSITY