

Sexuality, Gender and Intimate Justice

A dialogue with one of Hong Kong's leading public intellectuals

以藝術拯救愛情
use art to save love

以談笑創造希望
use conversation to create hope

PETULA SIK-YING HO

Professor of Social Work, University of Hong Kong broadcaster, best-selling author, filmmaker, and activist

Friday, April 28, 2017
2-4 pm

Harbour Centre 1600
515 W. Hastings Street
SFU Vancouver

Which is more difficult: finding true love or fighting for true democracy? Prof. Ho will engage the audience in a dialogue on "intimate justice" and share her research and creative work on the relation between social justice/injustice and intimate relationships. Drawing on experience of her political activism during Hong Kong's Umbrella Movement, she will also examine how ideas about gender, love, sex, and marriage change in times of political turbulence. Free & open to the public. Register at: sfu.ca/itcr/events
