SFU SIMON FRASER UNIVERSITY
THINKING OF THE WORLD

The Seniors Program in Continuing Studies at Simon Fraser University was established in 1975. It remains an integral part of SFU's commitment to help older adults achieve their intellectual, professional, and cultural goals through programs for lifelong learning that build on the strengths of the university and resources of the community.

The Seniors Program, unique in Canada, has grown greatly over the years. It offers a wide selection of non-credit courses, credit courses, seniors forums and individual events open to anyone fifty-five years of age and older regardless of educational background. Each year over 2000 seniors attend Saturday forums and participate in credit and over 50 non-credit courses.

The SFU Seniors Lifelong Learners Society, an independent incorporated society, helped finance this DVD project. The Society represents the interests and concerns of seniors students and liaises with the university Seniors Program. Further funding came from Dr. John LaBrie, Dean of Continuing Studies, at SFU.

This DVD is part of the SFU Seniors Program Outreach Project and is offered free of charge to non-profit seniors centres and seniors organizations. Additional roundtable discussion DVDs are available. If you wish more information kindly email seniors@sfu.ca or call 778.782.5212, or write to:
